In Brief... ANP coffee clatch scheduled

Associated Newspapers will be hosting a coffee hour for members of the community interested in discussing local problems and how their newspaper might be of service in solving those problems.

The first coffee hour will be held on Friday May 27, 1977, at Associated Newspapers headquarters, 35540 W. Michigan Avenue, Wayne. The group must be limited to the first 15 people who call for a reservation.

Coffee and donuts will be served during the informal discussion to begin at 4 p.m. ANP's entire editorial staff will be available to answer your questions concerning local news gathering and coverage.

Associated is offering the members of the communities we serve this opportunity to improve mutual communications.

Provided that there is sufficient interest in this type of get-together, Associated will continue, on a regular basis, the 'coffee

Highland Park Mayor Jessie Millar visits Romulus

Highland Park Mayor Jesse P. Miller, his wife, Easter, and several aides were given a royal tour of the city of Romulus Monday for Mayor's Exchange Day.

He was very excited to be in Romulus, he said, and remembered when he worked in the city back in the 1940's.

"Romulus has changed a lot since I was here last — and I kinda figured it would be somewhat like I saw it back then. We've been treated royally and we appreciate it very much.' Gifts were bestowed on all the visitors from Highland Park during the evening dinner at Ramada Inn. University of Detroit basketball star Johnny Long was also given a plaque and other gift for his fine example to the youth of the city of Michigan Week continues with special days planned daily through Saturday.

Belleville bike race is set

Belleville city officials warn that 'deadline day" to register for the annual bike race is May 31 at 4 p.m.
Bike riders are eligible from all over

Wayne County and there is no registration fee. However, everyone entering must fill out an application form and entrants under 18 years of age require their parent's or guardian's signature. The race is slated for June 18 and youngsters and oldsters alike will assemble at 12:30 p.m. in the parking lot behind the old National Bank of Detroit building at Main and Fourth streets.

The first race begins at 1 p.m. and the course will begin in front of Old Township Hall, 405 Main St., and travel successively down Roys, Church, Third and Main Streets before returning to the starting Several divisions will be run, including ages 8-9, 10-11, 12-13, 14-15, 16-17, adult and senior citizens. Trophies will be awarded to all winners and all participants will receive a prize.

Those wishing more informaton may call Belleville City Hall at 697-9323, or Don Carlson at 697-2271.

4-H club doings

The Mustangs 4-H Club of Belleville is busy with preparations for its first annual Open Horse Show on June 5, at the Circle

"R" Ranch, 18284 Inkster Rd., in Romulus. "This is our club's first venture at putting on an open pleasure show and we're all excited about it. We hope everyone will come out and attend the show that day," said Ms. Herring, who may be reached at 697-4835 for more information.

Consider new bargain unit

Teachers claim bad faith

By JIM BRADLEY ANP Staff Writer

Teddy Roosevelt said: "Speak softly and carry a big stick."

Romulus school teachers feel they have carried out the first part of that motto for the past 18 months. Now, they say, it's time to fulfill the second part.

And that's where the "big stick" comes in. Romulus Education Association President Terry Bird said Romulus teachers are strongly thinking about joining 20 other local school districts in forming the Wayne County Education Association, which would have one bargaining agent for the 21 districts.

"We feel the Romulus school board has broken their word to us and stabbed us in the back," Bird said, after Romulus schools were shut down Friday when 200 of the district's 286 teachers called in sick. However, school was open Monday as usual.

Supt. James Garfield said the board had changed its position, offering increments for the past two years and a three per cent across the board raise if the June 13 millage proposal passed.

"We worked most of last year without a contract before settling and now we've worked this entire school year without a contract," said Bird, who strongly denies any union backing to the "blackboard flu" sick

"We've worked cooperatively with the board on many efforts in the past.

We feel we have had a good spirit of cooperation, teachers have worked on millage elections with the administration.

"The board promised us it would negotiate a fair salary contract settlement with the teachers. Their word was —win or lose on the March 19 millage election-it would negotiate with us. Now they tell us they will not. We feel they have out-and-ot lied to us."

Consequently, Bird said, his group is now strongly thinking about joining 20 other

At Tuesday's city council meeting, Treasurer John Lewkowicz looked a gift horse in the mouth.

On council's agenda for that meeting was an item for payment to Associated Newspapers of $700.00. The money had been collected from donations to the Romulus Livelihood Day Committee (A committee consisting of local business leaders for the purpose of promoting the City of Romulus during the State-wide Michigan Week celebrations).

During the early planning sessions of the Livelihood day committee, the group decided that the printing of a special edition tabloid outlining the history of the city, as well as a complete schedule of planned events during Michigan Week, would be a good idea. Donations toward the cost of this publication were made to the City of Romulus following approval by Treasurer Lewkowicz.

Associated Newspapers had agreed to proceed on the preparations for the Michigan Week in Romulus tabloid, without any guarantee that sufficient funds would be raised. "This was a good faith gesture on the part of the paper," said David J. Willett publisher. "Since we are a part of the community, and one of the oldest businesses in the City of Romulus, we felt an obligation to help promote the city, and there was no better time to do that than during Michigan Week."

At the time of printing, The city of Romulus was holding about $700.00 donated toward the tabloid. When Lewkowicz was asked to forward that amount to Associated Newspapers he said he would not do that without authorization by city council, in spite of the fact that Lewkowicz had approved in advance the procedure he was now objecting to.

Following heated discussions at the council meeting which witnessed the Mayor's appeal to council to approve the transfer of the $700.00 to the paper "which after all" said Steward, "was only trying to help promote the city", council, after five motions and forty five minutes of discussion, finally approved the payment.

Following the vote to approve the payment which was strongly supported by Mayor Stewartnand Clerk Leonard Folmer, Folmer was overheard to have commented that it was indeed fortunate that several residents of the community, in attendance at the meeting, spoke in favor of making the payment. "If our community newspaper had been left holding the bill for the Romulus promotion tabloid, it is not to likely that they would be very anxious to help us the next time around.

Lewkowicz looked a gift horse in the mouth last week, and the horse nearly died.

giant teachers' union — The Wayne County Education Association (WCEA) — which would be the bargaining agent for 21 districts.

Included in the school districts taking about joining a WCEA, are Romulus, Van Buren, Huron, Wayne-Westland, Plymouth-Canton, Inkster Cherry Hill, Westwood and Garden City. Romulus teachers are scheduled to vote May 26 on whether to join the new education

Friday's school shutdown followed picketing by teachers in front of Romulus High School before and after regular school hours on Wednesday and Thursday. Some picket signs read: "Pay Me Now — Not Asst. Supt Marvin Fischer said it was apparent by 7:45 a.m. Friday there would be no high school or junior high classes when the administration office was swamped with teachers calling in sick.

By 8:45 a.m., he said, they knew they wouldn't have enough teachers to conduct classes in any of the district's nine elementary schools.

Fischer added: "The calls were coming in so fast Friday that we were not able to get them all. When some found the line busy, they called their own school.

However, it was reported that five teachers were on hand to teach at North Junior High, but were sent home at 8:15 a.m. and the school was secured at 10:15 a.m.

tried long and hard to work with the school board and feel they have been "kicked in the teeth" for their efforts.

"I know the public thinks most of us have a negative attitude," said Bird, who has been REA president 17 months. "But we would respectfully ask each resident to put themselves in our position and ask themselves how they would feel if they were lied to and consistently mistreated financially. "I feel I'm a very reasonable man, but we have some in our association who are not as patient — and I've just about lost all my patience with the board." We asked his assessment of the situation, Bird replied, "I honestly feel it will take a miracle to save Romulus schools.'

Pornography ordinance is approved by council

An ordinance passed last week by the Romulus City Council makes it unlawful for any person to promote pornography for adults and minors in the community.

City seeks rescue unit

By BOB AMEEN ANP Staff Writer

A new Emergency Medical Services (EMS) rescue unit being sought for the local fire department could result in "a 15 percent decrease in death and injury" each year for victims of serious accidents in the Romulus

This fact was brought to light prior to City Council approval of an application for $14,800 in matching Federal HEW funds submitted to the Wayne County EMS Council.

Currently, according to Stephen Bonczek, community development director, both Romulus and Huron Township are vying for the Federal funds to purchase an EMS rescue unit.

Noting that Huron Township's primary reason was its proximity to the new I-275 Expressway, Bonczek asserted that Romulus has more potential disaster situations than any other community in Wayne County and possibly the State of Michigan.

More specifically, he pointed out such potential disaster areas as Metropolitan Airport, I-94 and I-275 expressways, two railroads lines, chemical factories containing some three million gallons of product stored on their premises, three gas tank farms, one propane gas filling station, three companies

using underground gas mains and a paint

In his recommendation to Council for the EMU rescue unit, Bonczek stressed that the local fire department has only one rescue van of its own and that the city must rely for the balance of accident cases on contractural services with Taylor Ambulance Service of

He expressed confidence that Romulus would be successful in obtaining the $14,800 grant, half of the total $29,600 needed to purchase the resue unit.

Classified as a first line vehicle by the *Romulus Fire Department, the EMS rescue unit would be stationed at 36451 Bibbins to serve the estimated 26,000 inhabitants living in the 36-square miles of Romulus.

The new EMS rescue unit would cut response time to the accident scene from the current 10 to 15 minutes to an estimated seven to nine minutes, according to information supplied by Bonzcek the Wayne County EMS

In addition, the new EMS rescue unit would carry a four-channel high band VHF mobile radio for messages from its home base and other mobile units.

As now in effect, the new unit would transport accident victims to either Wayne County General or Annapolis hosptials.

Annual poppy sale to benefit local veterans corners and at businesses throughout Wayne, Romulus, Westland other communities Thursday, Friday and Saturday selling poppies.

The annual Poppy Sale will involve the American Legion Post 111 and auxiliary, the Harris Kehrer VFW Post, and Cpl. Edward Bova VFW Post, plus other veterans groups from the local community.

Mayors in the communities in-volved have signed proclamations naming the three days as Poppy

The poppies are made by hospitalized or disabled veterans who are paid for the work and also get a therapeutic benefit, according to American Legion spokesman auxiliary.

The proceeds then are used by local chapters to help veterans and their families.

Money raised by the local chapter is used by the local chapter, she added. Funds are used for rehabilitation programs, to insure the welfare of veterans' families, to implement youth programs and education and scholarship projects. The donation for a poppy is any amount you care to give, collected in cannisters at locations throughout the cities during the three days.

The veterans groups ask residents to "please buy a poppy and wear it proudly, as you show your remembrance of those who died, and aid the disabled and needy veterans and their families.

Poppy Days

You'll probably see a lot of bright red poppies around town this weekend, as veterans hit the streets for their annual poppy sales. The days are Thursday, Friday and Saturday for sale of poppies throughout the area. Made by hospitalized or disabled veterans, poppies are sold to raise money that will benefit veterans and their families. One of the groups getting ready for the sale is the American Legion Post 111 of Wayne. The members will be selling in Wayne, Romulus and Westland. Poppy Chairman for the post this year is Romulus resident Roy Williams (left), coordinating the sale with Bonnie Rounsifer, poppy chairman for the legion's auxiliary. - ANP

Postal Service sets ups envelope size standard

If you've still got any of those extra-small or odd-shaped envelopes - such as for birth announcements and social invitations - better use

That's the reminder issued by Belleville Postmaster R.J. O'Neil, who noted that in about a year from now — April 15, 1978 — new postal regulations are scheduled to go into effect to encourage the use of standard size envelopes for letter Non-standard letters are costly to process, since they cannot take advantage of the speed and efficiency of letter sorting machines and sometimes cause jams that may damage the mail.

The new regulations also call for a surcharge on non-standard size letter mail that is too large or too flimsy for machine processing.

"Actually, the individual mail user won't be affected greatly by the new dimensional standards, since only about 4 percent of the correspondence mail now falls into the oddsize category," O'Neil said.

The height of an envelope in relation to its width, along with its thickness and weight, are factors in the new mailing requirements.

As far as the general public is concerned, the most noticeable change will be the minimum standards for mailing pieces, except for keys and identification badges, anything less than 1/4 inch thick that is less than 3½ inches in height and 5 inches wide will be non-mailable.

RHS bands prepare for Spring Concert

Romulus Senior High School bands will present their annual Spring Concert in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. tomorrow

The Symphony Band will open the program with a varied selection of concert music, according to director Ralph Miller. Leading off with two selections performed at the District Band Festival last March, the band will pay "Bandwagon March" and

'Netherlands Suite". Following these tunes, the trombone section will be featured in "Lassus Trombone" by Fillmore

The Stage Band will take over the remainder of the program with musical selections to please all ages 'Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy'', Never Smile Again", "The Hustle" "Love Will Keep Us Together" and songs scheduled to be performed.

The Stage Band has entertained thousands of students and adults this school year and has received praise for each performance," Miller said. We hope many more will be entertained by this fine group and our excellent Symphony Band. We invite families, neighbors and friends for a truly enjoyable evening of music.

Coleman wants 'Super Sewer,' and what Coleman wants...

of battle may portend a new and exciting future for the suburban communities to the west of Coleman's-land.

Following a Romulus meeting at which suburban officials protested the transfer of control over 'Super Commission to the Wayne County Public Works Board a group controlled by Detroit someone made the together a form a new county the county of Suburbia.

The suggestion that the suburbs seceded from Wayne County, followed John Barr's statement that if the suburbs wanted 'Super Sewer'

Detroit's rules since Coleman Young had a majority of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners in his pocket, and what Coleman wanted, Coleman got, and Coleman wanted 'Super Sewer'.

Suburban concern over Detroit Sewer' from the Wayne County Road control of the sewer system is the result of their experience with the Detroit controlled: Water system.

Continual rate increases with now remark that maybe Western Wayne suburban representation on that County officials should band board. Transportation systems. SEMTA will most likely build Coleman Young his subway system for Detroit, primarly at the expense of the suburbs and providing little if department Coleman Young would

A chance remark made in the heat they would have to play the game by like to see the sheriffs patrols matter, if they want the new sewer eliminated in order to provide the funds for increased Detroit services, and the County has announced that sheriffs patrols will be pulled out of several of Western Wayne communities now reliant on that service.

> With Detroit in firm control of water, transportation, and the sheriffs department — thanks to those 14 commissioners dancing to Coleman's tune — the only thing remaining, in order to completely pull the economic noose around our suburban necks, would be to give Detroit control over Super Sewer.

Since John Barr has stated that any suburban service. Sheriffs under existing circumstances the suburbs have no choice in the system. We think those circumstances must be changed.

One way they can be changed is for the Western Wayne County suburbs to form their own county, and leave the remainder of Wayne County for Young to play with.

Possibly as soon as next week, a resolution to split Wayne County into two parts, will be presented to the Michigan legislature.

The resolution to form the new county of 'Suburbia' could be the ultimate answer to most of the problems plaguing Western Wayne

According to Royce Smith, Wayne County Commissioner, the 1980 census will give the out-county population a majority of three votes on the County Board of Commissioners." 'But by that time with the power hungry attitude the Detroit Commissioners are taking, there won't be much left to salvage.'

We agree with Commissioner Smith.

It is not logical that a person who has volunteered to provide for his blood for the last ditch effort to save a dying man's life, should himself expire from the loss of the same commodity.

Lets pull the tube now before it's too late. Maybe when we are well again we can once more try to save

On the brighter side

Opening night 'flutters'

By JIM BRADLEY ANP Staff Writer

There's something special about opening night at a high school musical. The blood rushes faster. The air is filled with electricity and everyone frantically checks last-minute preparations.

Will I remember my lines? Are the costumes ready? Did you make sure the scenery is complete for the second act? Three long months of choosing a cast, memorizing lines and building and painting scenery. Interminable rehearsals, endless hours of memorizing lines and countless commands from the director.

"Speak louder so we can hear you. You're really mad in this scene - show some anger! Put some feelinginto it this time. You're not standing in the right place. Where's the rest of the props? Don't forget which side to exit."

The deadening monotony of repetition. Why are the little details so important? Grabbing many "sandwich suppers" on the run — neglecting many pleasures — all for "this" musical? These thoughts rush through the minds of the army of participants in Belleville High School's annual musical -'West Side Story''. Moments remain before the "Opening Night" curtain-raiser. Why is my mind so blank — and yet so madly rushing? Don't forget your cue. Split-second timing is required on this one scene.

Have we forgotten anything? It's too late The lights have dimmed. Director Dennis Miller has entered the orchestra pit and received a generous round of applause.

nation's citizens.

Well, it's all on the line now. We're in this together-as a team. All we've worked and sweated and deprived ourselves for is ready for public scrutiny. How will it come off?

SSH! The auditorium lights have been turned off completely and the stage curtains are parting. Rising in volume and intensity, the instrumental prologue signals the beginning of another opening night. "West Side Story" is about to be told.

Meanwhile, in front of the curtains an entirely different story unfolds. My wife and I, caught by a delay in appointments, grab a quick steak submarine sandwich at Captain lemo's. We wash it down with a cold Pensi which fizzes up our nose in our haste to make opening curtain.

From our padded seats half-way back in the auditorium, we glance over and see the big clock on the left wall. It reads 7:55 and we breathe a sigh of relief (and fatigue). Orchestra director Dennis Miller appears from behind the curtains and a voice somewhere behind us murmurs, "Right on the button." The lights go out at 8 o'clock and the curtains part. "West Side Story" is about to be heard.

cast to a standing ovation, "West Side Story" is quite a story. From the lead players of Tom Laine, Lisa Pellecchia, John Price, Stan King and Jane committees - all share in the musical's rousing success.

From chubby officer Krupke (Curt Cardinal) to the comic relief of Baby John (Darel Adams), the cock-eyed baseball cap of Anybodys (Janet Bly), the Jets and Sharks choruses, to the philosophical rebukes of Doc (John Wyman), the casting is excellent.

Behind the astoundingly authentic scenes are the art, costume, lighting, make-up, orchestra, patrons, publicity, scenery construction, scenery painting, stage crew, ticket and usher committees. And behind them, understanding parents and the public which filled the auditorium.

Perhaps most responsible of all, Mrs. Louise Pitcher, director; Mrs. Karen Sinkus, assistant director; Glenn Curtis, technical director and Dennis Miller, orchestra

These all contributed to the success of 'West Side Story" - plus many, many others who unselfishly gave of their time, talent and money. Yes, these are the ones who once again proved that youth — whether at Belleville or any other high school — can rise to any challenge and pass with flying colors.

"West Side Story" - quite a story. Two From the opening scene with Riff and the "West Side Story" — quite a story. Two Jets to the finale and the introducing of the more performances (on Friday and Saturday nights) and it will all be over. But the success makes you proud to be a part of Belleville

Politics and politicians

By BOB AMEEN

The words "politics" and "politicians"-prompt feelings of distrust, disbelief, doubt, If there is one thing learned in years of covering news beats, it's that this type of politician never looks back, but continually anxiety and frustration among many of our plunges upward and onward at all cost! To them, the end certainly justifies the means Why? No better example can be found than the tragedy of former President Richard M. In short, politics is a game and a dirty one. To survive, a politican must quickly learn all of the ground rules and as many holds as a championship wrestler. It's no place for the squeamish or the faint of heart!

Just as in an automobile plant, where research and engineering strive to improve their product each and every year in regard to appearance, safety and fuel economy, so in politics, efforts should continually be made to upgrade the standard of campaigning. In both instances, the end results should be in the best interests of the people.

Although at election time, voters oftentimes have only "a choice between two evils," which they can do nothing about then, the can do something prior to election day. They can work hard to nominate the best qualified candidates. If they proves impossible, they can run for office themselves! It only makes good sense that the better the candidates, the better will be our rule of government at all

Before the next election rolls around remember the old adage - "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure!"

Health Beat

Democratic group for democratic disease

By RUSS TUTTLE Director, Community Relations Peoples Community Hospital Authority

As the interview with the satellite group continued, one member said, "Here's something you should put in the paper. There is no question in my mind that participation in both the standard and the satellite alcoholism programs at Annapolis has saved

He said what he meant was that he had honestly given serious thought to suicide not an unusual thought in the travels of a practicing alcoholic considering that alcoholics have a suicide rate 58 times higher than that of the general public. Indeed, over one-third of the suicides in the country are alcohol-induced.

"If I hadn't done myself in," he said, "then the alcohol would finally have taken its toll and I'd be dead."

Bob Denton explained that the use of socalled scare tactics in the treatment of alcoholics did little good. He further explained, though, that it was his obligation as a professional in the health care field to spend some time on the dangers of the addiction from purely a physical aspect.

"There is no absolute way to calculate the harm done to the human organism from substance abuse. In addition to alcohol, I might include nicotine, caffine, and even candy kisses if there is practiced abuse.

"However, my principal area of concern is alcohol. Those who insist on using this drug in an abusive manner have the good fortune of looking forward to things such as hypertension, pancreatitis, stomach cancer, heart trouble, hypoglycemia, liver problems, dehydration, and the DT's to mention just a few possibilities.

"It's not a pretty picture," Denton said, 'and perhaps it's not suppossed to be.

Denton went on to say that because only 1 out of 8 heavy alcohol abusers actually end up as diagnosed alcoholics, too many drinkers are content to play the odds and figure they are one of the lucky seven who make it without developing an addiction.

The satellite group has had in their meetings, a physiologist who had the ability to explain the total effects of alcohol abuse on the human body. The group has traveled to the Brighton Hospital - an alcoholic treatment center directed by Russell Smith, MD, who is himself a recovering alcoholic.

The group, then, gets around. They have a social hour following their monthly meeting. It's an hour or so of friendship where the most potent brew on the table is coffee or tea.

It's important because these people have spent much of their previous life ostracized from the social world which many of us take for granted. As one of them put it, "Nobody likes a drunk because a drunk is obnoxious, sloppy, vulgar, unreliable, and unpredictable. So, when you are really into the booze, you live a life of isolation. Your companions are usually other drunks, and you find yourself morally and ethically bankrupt.

Another group member said, "When I was a practicing alcoholic I know now that my wife, who somehow stuck it out with me, felt trapped. And she was also isolated from any real social life because no one wanted me around. Now that I've attained two years of sobriety, we are able to function as normal human beings and have been able to put our lives back together.'

The wives are now invited to participate in some of the functions if they so please, and the group periodically makes social outtings together—golfing, boating, fishing, and what have you. The point here being, that there is a way back if one is prepared to look into a mirror and face reality. And that reality says that an alcoholic must finish out his life without the 'benefits' of alcohol.

"It's not easy to admit you are powerless to control your drinking," said one man, "and t's even harder to throw away your crutch that bottle of whiskey or that can of beer."

There are some in society who, perhaps in trying to find a higher plateau for themselves are prone to sniff and dismiss the alcoholic as one who is depraved or as one who simply lacks willpower.

That's unfortunate, because it's too simplistic, and frankly, reeks of ignorance.

Alcoholism is a disease. It's a complicated malady, and the root causes have yet to be determined. It's treatable but not curable something like diabetes!

And, do people 'blame' other people because they are diabetic, or do they show some compassion and try to understand that there are some things which go beyond our basic understanding and control?

"This is possibly one of our biggest problems," said Bob Denton. "We have got to educate, not only ourselves as alcoholics, but society as well. The public ignorance which equates alcoholism with poor moral character or a lack of basic intelligence must be neutralized.

"Alcoholics don't ask for any special treatment. They are fighting a difficult battle, and only if you've been there can you know how difficult the battle is.

"We are certainly not proud of the addiction. Still, once we've achieved sobriety and begin to function in society as productive individuals we'd like a little understanding. Hell yes, even a pat on the back wouldn' hurt!

"You've got to remember," he concluded," that those who have fought the battle and regained their sobriety have accomplished something very few will ever accomplish.' (to be continued next week)

Relief for the handicapped legislation

The legislature has moved toward solving some of the problems faced by the physically and mentally handicapped.

This has included house approval of bills to make the physically handicapped more mobile. Some handicapped persons are able to drive their own cars, while others have relatives or friends who can drive them, but there are others who must rely on public transportation. One of the bills approved by the House would require city bus systems to equip new vehicles to serve physically handicapped persons. The requirement would apply to buses seating at least 30 passengers in systems of at least 10 buses

The bill was amended before passage to permit a bus system to opt out of the requirement if they provide instead door-todoor service for the handicapped with a diala-ride system. Many bus system operators favor this approach, claiming it would provide better service at less cost. Currently, transit vehicles cannot be purchased with motor fuel tax funds made available by the general transportation program provisions of the law, until the legislature prescribes standards which insure that handicapped persons have access to those vehicles.

The bill would alter this provision and require instead that no transit vehicles except those with lifts for wheelchairs could be purchased with the available funds which are not already committed under contracts in existence as of last November 15. The only exception would be, as noted, those bus systems which offer door-to-door service for the handicapped. The bill is under consideration in the Senate, where a similar measure died last

The House has approved a Senate bill which would correct some problems of handicappers who have access to cars.

Current law mandates that special parking spaces be provided for the physically han-dicapped in parking lots open to the public. However, there are no provisions in law restricting the use of these spaces to the handicapped, and non-handicapped persons often use the special spaces, making them unavailable to those who are handicapped.

Even if these spaces were restricted by law, persons who provide transportation for the handicapped or park vehicles for the handicapped could receive tickets for using parking spaces technically designated for handic appers.

Also, the special wheelchair symbol license plates are currently unavailable for vans specially equipped for use by the han-dicapped, as they are for cars.

The bill recently approved by the House and Senate addresses itself to these problems.

It would specifically restrict the special parking spaces to handicapped persons and those who are providing transportation for the handicapped. Other persons who use the special spaces would be guilty of a misdemeanor and would be subject to current parking violation penalties.

The bill would require special certificates of identification for handicappers' vehicles, to be displayed on the lower left corner of the front windshield. These certificates would be transferable to persons other than the handicapper, but only for purposes of providing transportation for the handicapped.

The bill also extends the currently available handicapper license plates bearing the official wheelchair symbol to vans specially equipped for use by handicapped persons.

The bill would take effect next October 1. The legislation is supported by the Michigan Departments of State Police, Highways and Transportation and Labor and the Michigan Area of the National Association of the Physically Handicapped.

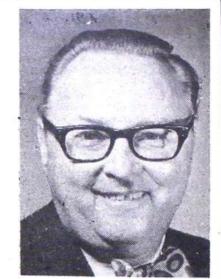

Earlier in the session, the House and Senate established a joint committee to study the needs of adults with developmental disabilities, which includes mental retardation, mental illness, epilepsy and cerebral palsy.

The Department of Mental Health has identified more than 9,000 mentally retarded persons 26 years old and older who reside in their communities and more than 3,000 others in the same age group who are in state in-

At age 26, these mentally handicapped persons are no longer eligible for mandatory special education programs provided through the Michigan Department of Education. However, they may be graduated from those programs as young as 18 years old. This makes them ineligible for further educational and day programming.

The Department of Education graduates a new class of developmentally disabled adults out of its service responsibility every year, thus increasing the number of persons in need of additional special services. Yet, these persons in most cases could benefit from additional assistance.

It is felt that there are insufficient programs and services in the areas of education, special day programs, vocational training or employment, housing, health and transportation for adults with developmental

"Oh sweet mystery"

D. G. FASSETT ANP Managing Editor

I waded through the sixty paces of piled snow lining my driveway, on the daily trip to the mail box. While pulling down the front cover of the box, the thought occured to me that the mail box was really a 'Star Gate', through which my mind could pass on a flight

Opening that box is one of those moments in life that provides mankind with that sweet mystery that poets talk so much about.

Never knowing for sure what the contents will reveal, the pulse starts racing, the heart throbbing, and the mind soars.

Now a pessimist would dismiss this whole episode as romantic nonsense, but the eternal optimist (which I am), always seeking adventure, drinks deeply from life's cup, ever on guard for the moment when the arm can no longer raise the elixir to the mouth.

I found a damn bill in the mail box! Not only a bill, but a super bill, one of those little gems that makes the hair rise on the back of your neck. One of those yearly 'jobs' that mess up a whole week mentally, and a whole month economically.

A bill of this stature would have to be classified as a 'Super Bill'. In case I haven't explained.

I have developed a system for classifying bills by their size, and consequently their impact on the wallet.

First you have the regular bill that comes once a month. This type you have been able to develop a little immunity to over the years, and while they inflict pain, it is relatively short lived and not too severe.

The third type of bill is the real cruncher.
These are the gems that only come once a

A 'Super Bill' it was too.

Dear Mr. Fassett the note began. We regret that rising costs have forced us to again raise your automobile rates this year.... Coverage on your 1970 rusted station wagon has increased 20 percent as you have undoubtedly noticed, and since parts are no

"Mr. Cullin please" I tell the operator at the insurance agency, "One moment please" she responds. "Can I help you" the next voice said, obviously not Mr. Cullin, "Yes you can" I reply, "I would like to talk to Mr. Cullin. "What is your policy number sir?" she asks. "What difference does it make what my policy number is," I shout, "Just let me talk to Mr. Cullin."

"We must be sure that you speak to the correct agent," she replies in a voice dripping with contempt. The five minute search for that policy number supposedly printed on policy is complete and the information relayed to Miss Personality. "One moment

"Mr. Cullin, what is your limited respon-sibility rider," I ask, while being impressed with the fact that an insurance company could develop a system making them less responsible to customers.

That rider Mr. Fassett, simply provides for the reduction of your preminum, and at the same time, a reduction in our responsibility in case you are involved in an ac-cident." "Go on" I said.

"Well it is really quite simple Mr. Fassett," he said. "If you agree not to drive your car, and release us of any liability in connection with your policy, we can probably save you about $25.00."

"You mean that if I agree to your limited responsibility coverage and don't drive my car you can save me $25.00," I said, "then what is the advantage in having a policy at

You know, I had never thought of it in just that way," I said. "Sign me up." And by the way I'd like to buy you lunch for all your effort in saving me that $25.00."

Hanging up the phone, the thought occurred to me that maybe no-fault was the wave of the future. After all, if you can do nothing, you can do nothing wrong.

Will marriage make a comeback?

By GEORGE R. PLAGENZ

Neither friends nor lovers - as the recent television drama made clear - Eleanor and Franklin Roosevelt nevertheless took seriously their marriage vow, "till death do

They had been married for 40 years when

FDR died in 1945. Many people today feel loveless marriages are a mistake. Divorce, in their view, is

But not everybody feels that way. A divorce lawyer who makes his living and a good one — getting people divorced says in a national magazine that divorce causes so much stress and trauma that he believes many people who get divorced today would be better off staying together, even if there is little or no love in their relationship. Columnist Sydney Harris says he is amazed to read of many divorced couples who say, 'We are still very good friends. "Isn't that enough reason to stay together?" he asks. "What greater thing is there in life than friendship?"

A Unitarian minister in New Bedford, Mass., says that love and marriage don't necessarily "go together like a horse and carriage.

"But because we have been taught to think that they do," says Rev. Farley Wheelwright, "many marriages are failing

He calls it "love and mirage." "When people are no longer in love, they get divorced," he says. "But there are many loveless marriages which are successful. And there are many marriages which have love but not the other ingredients which are

Wheelwright suggests that the threefold promise in the marriage ceremony be reversed so that "love, honor and cherish" becomes cherish, honor and love."

'Cherish means acceptance," says the minister, "accepting the other party as he is — with all his faults. This is the most important part of marriage."

Wheelwright says there are three main reasons for modern marital disfunction: 1. - We expect too much of marriage and the mate.

This agrees with something that has been said by Prof. Donald Campbell of Nor-thwestern University, president of the American Psychological Association. "Psychiatrists and psychologists have led people to believe they are being cheated if their 'experience samples' are not totally pleasurable," he says.

This, says Campbell, has produced the "frustratingly high expectation levels that may be increasing the fragility of present-day marriages.' 2. - Our middle-class standards of living - involving social climbing, working mothers and fathers with two jobs — place too great a strain on marriage. "Such marriages become a business Wheelwright, "and partnership," says business partners don't often make the best marriage partners." 3. — Our marriages are built "too much on sexual attraction which is palmed off as

There are some statistics indicating that the divorce spiral is leveling off. The number of divorces is still higher than ever, but divorces are not increasing at the rate they were a few years ago.

Whether this is because people who are involved in marriages which are less than ideal are coming to realize that the alternative - divorce - can be even worse isn't clear yet.

"Divorce is a good thing for people caught up in an intolerable situation," says a psychotherapist at University Hospitals in Cleveland. "The problem is to identify those marital situations which are truly intolerable and ought to be terminated from those which could be saved if both parties would agree to work together to save the marriage.

In any case, marriage may have more supporters today than it has had in the last several years.

Mademoiselle magazine recently predicted, "Look for a change in how people look at marriage. Everyone will want to get married. Everyone will want to stay married. Look for books and talk-show chat putting value on the lasting marriage." Copyright, 1977, United Feature Syndicate,

Bills come to aid of the handicapped

The legislature has moved toward solving some of the problems of the physically and mentally handicapped, according to State Rep. Edward Mahalak.

Mahalak, who represents the 38th District, said the move included House of approval of bills to make the physically handicapped more mobile.

One of the bills approved by the House would require city bus systems to equip new vehicles to serve physically handicapped persons. The requirement would apply to buses seating at least 30 passengers in systems of at least 10 buses

Bills to improve water board operations

State Rep. Robert Law, of the 36th District and vice-chairman of the House City Government Committee, has announced that his panel has unanimously reported to the full House of Representatives two bills designed to improve operations of the Detroit Water Board.

"I think this reflects the great concern on the part of many legislators regarding the functioning of the Water Board and the reliability of the figures on which it has based previous rate in creases to suburban customers," Law said.

He pointed out that one of the bills - H.B. 4017 - would allow for an independent audit of the Detroit Water Board's books.

"This would clear up any questions about rates and costs, Law said. "Presently, the law provides only for an internal audit by the City of Detroit. Last year, when such an audit was requested, it was refused."

Law has been concerned with rate increases over the past two years and has followed closely the progress that the mayor of Livonia has made with the Detroit Water

"When the mayor and other prominent officials left the board, that brought this matter to a head. I fully support an independent audit for the board, as well as maintaining increasing suburban representation on it." he continued.

"The Detroit Water Board is the only metro-area water board that is not required to have an independent legislation will change that."

The other bill approved by the committee, H.B. 4018, would guarante e suburban representatives a voice on the Water Board. It would increase board size from seven to nine members, with only five of those being appointed by Detroit; presently all seven are.

Fed's flood insurance is meet topic

The Federal Flood Insurance Program and its impact on local units of government and private property owners will be the subject of a public meeting May 26.

The session, which will constitute the in-formational portion of the Huron River Watershed Council's annual meeting, will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Henderson Room of the Michigan League, located on the University of Michigan's Ann Arbor

According to Council Executice Secretary Owen Janson, the major purpose of the meeting is to assist governmental officials and private citizens in understanding this complex and often controversial program. A film dealing with flood plain management will be shown, followed by a presentation on the Flood Insurance Program by Richard Carlisle, who is on the staff of Ayres, Lewis, Norris & May Inc., Consulting Engineers. The Federal Flood Insurance Program was established by Congress in 1968, expanded in 1973, and further defined via new regulations which go into effect this summer. Designed for both individuals and communities as a whole, the insurance program takes a combined, corrective-andpreventative approach to national flood damage

On the one hand affordable, subsidized flood insurance is made available for existing development in flood plain areas. But the program also requires communities to adopt and administer local flood plain and land use measures that will protect lives and new construction from future flooding.

It is these latter requirements, Janson indicated, which have been both controversial and difficult for many to understand. He noted that the program has far-reaching effects in terms of both community flood plain land use and financial assistance for future development. Sanctions in the law, he pointed out, include the complete withholding of all federal or federally-related financial assistance from a community and its residents located in flood hazard areas. These preventative measures and sanctions affect the activities of banks — as lending institutions - and real estate firms as well.

The Huron River Watershed Council, sponsor of the meeting, is an intergovernmental agency designed to promote cooperation and coordination between units of government on water resource issues in the drainage basin of the Huron River, and to keep the total watershed public informed on such

For further information on the meeting, or on the council and its activities, contact Janson at 665-0514.

Ms. Steinem airs tragedy of wife beating

Workshop set on canning

Recent cases of botulism from home-canned peppers have emphasized the need for understanding the proper procedures for canning food at home

Johne Criner, Michigan State University Extension home economist in Wayne County, will conduct a food preservation workshop, entitled "How Not to Poison Your Family" at several Western Wayne County locations.

The lesson in safe methods for preserving foods at home will cover canning, jelly making, pickles and relishes, and will be held at The Canton Parks and Recreation Center, 44237 Michigan Avenue, from 2 to 4 p.m. Monday.

The workshop also will be held at the Wayne County Intermediate School District Building, 33500 Van Born, Wayne, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. May 26 and at the Inkster Public Library, 2005 S. Inkster Road, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. June 2.

There will be a 50-cent charge for materials. Reservations and further information can be obtained by calling 721-6550 or 563-2400.

Revenues continue increase

State fuel tax revenues are still climbing, increasing by 5.8 percent in the first quarter of 1977 when compared to the same period in 1976, according to the State Highway Commission.

Collections on sale of gasoline, diesel fuel and liquid petroleum gas in the January-March period totaled $100,106,348, up by $5,486,488 from the year before.

License plate fees, based on vehicle weight, yielded $98,280,478, an increase of 5.7 percent. Revenues nearly made up for the decline in the previous quarter, the result of slow sales of 1977 tabs affixed to plates issued in 1976.

Gross reeipts, including $2,889,626 in earned interest and miscellaneous revenues, totaled $201,276,453, an increase of 6.2 percent over the first quarter of 1976. (Interest now is distributed quarterly, rather than annually as in previous years).

All the tax revenues go to the State Motor Vehicle Highway Fund. Proceeds are being distributed to the state, counties and municipalities after deduction of $17,117,843 in grants and collection

Wayne County's shares of those revenues will be $10,131,788, up from the $9,851,135 it collected for the same time period in 1976.

The Western Wayne County municipalities and what they will receive are:

-Belleville, $12,950 for the first quarter of 1977, up from the 1975

figure of $11,695. -Inkster, $191,717 for the first quarter of 1977, up from the 1975

-Wayne, $107,493, up from the 1975 first quarter amount of $101,515. -Westland, $431,256 for the first quarter of 1977, up from $405,875

(1). The meaning of the name LAODICEA comes from two Greek words which are, Laos; which means "the people", and Dicea; which means, "they say, or, they rule". Thus the full meaning of the word is: The Rule of the People.
(2). Notice in the passage of Scripture there are no commendations given to this church. There was not one single thing they were doing that God could commend them for.

(3). The complaints that God had for this church would be comparably the same for today. Theologians have dated this Church Age as beginning with the 1900s. They were neither cold nor hot. As I minister to people today I find the excuses that people have for not accepting Christ and being born again, that is born of the Spirit of God, is the fact that they feel that they either are too good to be bad, or they are too bad to be

I find today that lots of people never pray in their home, never study their Bible, never talk about the Lord in fear that they will offend their friends. They are lukewarm. There has never been a time in the church before compared to what we are experiencing today. Even church people are wretched, poor, miserable, blind and naked: Of course, this is refering to the Spiritual needs. They don't even like to admit there is such a thing as being led by the Holy Spirit.

I have never seen a time before that if someone got happy in the Spirit that others would feel uneasy. This church was shot through with self-deception. It's gold was the wrong kind. It's sight was limited. It's clothing was filthy There was a righteousness", indicating that Church Membership was considered sufficient for Salvation. It was a church from which Christ was excluded. That's hypertension

What you don't know can hurt you

"What you don't know can't hurt you." "Ignorance is bliss." goes up must come down."

Cliches every one that have been heard a million times, and because they're so common, they've come to be accepted as truth.

Whatever you think of the other two, the last one is definitely not true, at least when it comes to high blood pressure. For the fact is, high blood pressure doesn't always come down. And when it doesn't, it's deadly.

How much do you know about high blood pressure? During May — High Blood Pressure Month — the Metropolitan Detroit Hypertension Coalition urges you to find out what your blood pressure is and take this true and false quiz to learn the facts about this killer disease

(1) High blood pressure and hypertension are two different conditions. True or false? (2) Headaches and dizziness are symptoms of high blood pressure. True or false?

(3) High blood pressure is one of the primary causes of stroke, heart failure and kidney failure. True or false?

(4) High blood pressure can usually be cured. True or false?

The answers: (1) FALSE, high blood pressure and hypertension are one and the same, hypertension simply being the medical term for high blood pressure.

(2) FALSE, for most people with high blood pressure, there are no symptoms, especially in the early stages. People who have severe high blood pressure, but aren't treating it, will sometimes experience dizziness and headaches. But more often than not, there are not symptoms at all, which is why high blood pressure has been called "the silent killer".

(3) TRUE, high blood pressure, over a period of time, may damage the heart, kidneys or brain. The higher the pressure, the more likely it is that damage will be done. It is a major cause of heart attack, stroke, heart and kidney failure.

(4) FALSE, in most cases high blood pressure cannot be cured, but it can almost always be controlled by a lifetime program of medication and-or diet and exercise.

If some of the things you just learned were a surprise to you, you're not alone. Recent findings suggest that one in every seven adults in this country - some 23 million people -have high blood pressure and more than seven million don't know it. Nor do they know just how serious the condition

All the facts are not yet in on high blood pressure. We don't know the cause in 90 percent of all cases. We don't know why black Americans are twice as likely to have it as white Americans. We don't know why some children as young as 4 years old have it.

We do know, however, that medication and diet usually will control high blood pressure and that such a program may add as much as 16 years to the life of a person who discovers it early and continues treatment.

Considering what high blood pressure can do to you, it seems well worth the few minutes it takes to have it checked once a year. Call the West Wayne office of the Michigan Heart Association at 425-2333 for an appointment to get a free blood pressure test or have your blood pressure checked the next time you see your doctor. Because, contrary to the old saying, "What you don't know can hurt you."

Committee looks into government's student assistance tatives' Subcommittee on Postsecondary Education will be holding a series of hearings on all forms of federal assistance to students, according to its chairman, Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District).

Exercising his subcommittee's responsibility of coordinating all education and student financial assistance beyond the high school level, Congressman Ford said: "These comprehensive oversight hearings on federal programs, which provide benefits and assistance for postsecondary education, will concentrate on student financial assistance programs throughout the federal government, including some of the more visible and familiar programs, such as veterans benefits (GI bill)." From the testimony of government and public witnesses, Ford hopes the subcommittee can determine how well the programs are administered and if the policies of the various federal agencies involved are coordinated.

Ford explained: "We will examine the efficacy, scope and constituency of all educational assistance programs to determine if they should be continued, enlarged, reduced or revised in some other fashion.'

Public witnesses include a panel of college and university presidents on June 1; state officials on June 8, and hearings will take place at 10 a.m. in Room 2261 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

County eyes expansion of Eloise health center

The Wayne County Health Department has petitioned the state for approval to expand and renovate its county health center Merriman Road in Eloise.

County Wayne proposes to build a new 2-floor addition to the health center and to renovate the existing structure, at a cost of approximately $670,000.

'Flight' to be topic

The subject "Of Flight" will be examined in a special program to be held at the Nature Center on Kensington Metropark near Milford on Saturday at 8 p.m.

Highlight of the program will be a presentation of the Smithsonian Institute's film to "To Fly". A trail walk will follow to observe flight characteristics of park birds.

Advanced registration is required. Contact the Kensington Metropark Nature Center at 685-1561 (Milford).

The addition would provide more space for department clinical programs, examination rooms for respiratory, orthopedic and social hygiene programs, a location for biologics distribution and a new waiting room. All of the department's activities would undergo re-organization, with some programs also relocated to improve their space, accessibility, or both. County sources have indicated that the proposed project would increase the health department's capacity to serve and would expand on the ability of staff to provide quality in-depth and on-site public health services.

Because the planned project is part of a health facility, the county is asking for state approval in the form of a Certificate of Need. Application for the certificate has been filed with the Division of Health Facility Planning and Construction of State Health Department.

If approved, project is targeted for completion November 1978.

TEACHERS' STRIKE

IN ROMULUS

IS THAT WHAT YOU WANT? IT'S NOT WHAT THE TEACHERS WANT! BUT...

WOULD YOU WORK UNDER THESE CONDITIONS?

Cost of living goes up 5% or more every year. But...

Romulus teachers have had no pay increase since August, 1975

Board PROMISED a pay increase for teachers after March 19. But...

The latest board offer is ZERO increase for the next FIVE years!

Health coverage paid by employers is a standard procedure. But... In the latest board offer, teachers are denied full Blue Cross Coverage.

Board refuses to pay for educational field trips for kids. But... Board DID use taxpayers for expense-paid trip to Houston, Texas, for all school board members and the superintendent, using a SCHOOL bus as their taxi to the airport!

ROMULUS TEACHERS DO NOT WANT TO STRIKE. BUT... WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

MCF recognizes volunteers' work

Three Western Wayne County women were among 65 Michigan Cancer Foundation (MCF) volunteers to be honored last month at the organization's first annual Volunteer Recognition Dinner. The volunteers recognized, were honored for their more than 30 years of outstanding and dedicated services. Their work has saved Detroit area cancer patients more than $1.75 million during the past 30 years by sewing and distributing free cancer

Recognized for their work were

Esther Lang of Westland, who sews with the Wesleyan Service Guild; Dot Icenogle of Romulus, who sews with the Mortenview Sewing Club; and Nellie Baigrie of Plymouth, who sews with the ASK Luncheon Group In addition, each of these women has sewed more than 10,000 dressings and contributed more than 2,500 of service during the past three decades. Collectively, they have provided 3,500 cancer patients with almost 700,000 dressings.

These women also have donated their time and talents to the aid and comfort of cancer patients while still assuming the responsibilities of their roles as mothers, grandmothers and volunteers with other civic activities, a MCF spokesman

"These women are exemplary in their generosity, said Mary Mulligan, MCF volunteer services manager, "and they truly represent the strength of the American volunteer spirit. We are extremely proud of all of our more than 8,000 volunteers, and we'd like to thank each and every one of them for giving of themselves to help ease the burden of cancer patients.

Newlywed Clays make home in Westland

A week-long honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania followed the April 16 wedding of Maryann Nelson of Romulus and David Clay of Westland.

The young couple exchanged nuptial vows at the Community United Methodist Church in Romulus at six in the evening with The Rev. Paul Greer presiding.

For the candlelight service, the altar was graced with two bouquets of white gladiolas and mums. Music was played by Tony Giamanco, the orangist, and sung by Joyce Palka.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, is the daugher of Mr. and Mrs. Max Nelson of 35150 Goddard Rd., Romulus. Her bridegroom is napolis, Wayne. For her wedding day, Maryann chose to wear a toe-touching gown of silk organza designed in the A-line mode with an empire waistline. Chantilly lace embellished with seed pearls and sequins formed a bib effect on the little fitted bodice which was cut with lace trimmed bishop sleeves.

the son of Frank Clay of 32229 An-

Her mantilla veil of silk illusion drifted to chapel length to match the circular train of the gown. Completing her bridal finery was a large colonial bouquet of red roses, white carnations and baby's breath.

Preceding the bride up the aisle were three attendants: Cheryl Oaks of Romulus, the maid of honor; Mrs. Karen Nelson of New Baltimore, a sister-in-law; and Vickie Clay of Ann Arbor, the bridegroom's sister.

Except for the color of their hats and the trim on their dresses, the trio appeared in identical blue organza frocks. The A-line gowns featured ruffled scoop necklines, short puffed sleeves and flounced hemlines. Miss Oaks was distinguished by the pink picture hat she wore and the pink ribbon which traced the waistline of her dress. The bridesmaids softbrimmed hats were in white as were their sashes.

The hand bouquets they carried were comprised of long-stemmed blue and white daisies, carnations, statice and baby's breath tied with streamers to match their outfits.

The bridegroom asked his friend, William (Tim) White of Belleville, to serve as best man. Groomsmen were George Nelson of New Baltimore, brother of the bride; and Jim Emhoff of Belleville.

At the reception which followed in the Fellowship Hall of the church, Mrs. Nelson, greeted the 115 guests in a blue and silver floor-length dress styled along princess lines with silver trim and silver accessories. Her corsage of pink roses also was accented with silver. Since returning from their wedding trip the newlyweds have taken up residence at the bridegroom's address at 35410 Schley St., Westland.

Mrs. Clay, who The new graduated from Romulus High School in 1975, is a licensed cosmetologist. She is currently employed at Metro Hilton Inn at Romulus.

Her husband, a 1975 Belleville High School graduate, attended Ferris State College and at present is a student at Henry Ford Community College. He is an employee of Header Products in Romulus.

ows 39 percent hike

Teen-age gonorrhea cases increase in '76

gonorrhea patients are g at clinics, operated by ne County Department of recent report, published by the ith department, showed that norrhea cases in the county, cluding the City of Detroit, ineased 39 percent in 1976. Acrding to Dr. Jane Polkowski, mmunicable diseases director, venereal disease (VD) situation 't likely to improve.

Withing our VD clinics, we saw a percent increase in gonorrhea as mpared to 1975, and of those cases, nearly half were teen-age women," Dr. Polowski said. "We also are concerned that a large portion of our gonorrhea cases occurred in late 1976, and our figures for early 1977 indicate that this upward trend is continuing."

Other highlights of the report disclosed that the age of male patients treated for gonorrhea at the health department clinics in 1976 also increased, which contrasts significantly with data of recent

The report identified key communities in Wayne County, which showed significant increases in resident visits to the Eloise Clinic in 1976. Patients from Inkster, Detroit and Romulus represented the largest portion—67 percent—of that increase.

However, according to Dr. Polkowski, the data should not be interpreted to mean that the gonorrhea problem is isolated in these communities. To the contrary, there was a 33 percent increase in patients treated coming from Plymouth. The communities of Dearborn, Taylor, Livonia, Wayne and Westland accounted for 27 percent of all gonorrhea treated at the Eloise Clinic," explained the doctor.

Public Health Director Dr. Perry Sterns commented on the report by saying: "It's high time that the VD epidemic is brought under control. The problem is not going to disappear. We've been experiencing major increases in gonorrhea cases for the past 10 years, increases that far exceed population growth."

One of Dr. Sterns' concerns is that most women with the disease are not aware that they have gonnorrhea.

"Women can have gonorrhea for months and not be aware of the infection, he explained. "In the meantime, the disease may have spread to the upper genital area where the gonnorrhea bacteria begin attacking the ovaries and fallopian tubes which eventually leads to pelvic inflamatory disease (PID)." A major complication of PID is sterility, the inability to become pregnant.

According to state department officials there were 12,000 cases of PID in Michigan women last year, which were the result of gonorrhea complications. As a result, more than $11 million were spent in direct medical and hospitalization costs. Because of PID, 3,000 to 5,000 Michigan women were rendered sterile in 1976. Lost school days among teen-age girls last year amounted to 12,000 days because of

Those figures represent the cost of only one of the consequences of gonorrhea. Health officials are just beginning to comprehend the monetary, social and individual suffering associated with the gonorrhea epidemic in our state. Gonnorrhea check-ups at least twice a year are highly recommended for sexually active females, par-ticularly those women with more than one sex partner.

How will the gonorrhea epidemic be stopped? Most public health officials feel that until a vaccine is discovered the most effective measure to combat the problem is education programs, which emphasize prevention and early "Frankly, we feel that the school setting provides the best opportunity for effective VD education to take place," Dr. Stearns said.

School districts have utilized health department staff and local resources in teacher inservice programs, however, this has occurred on only a limited basis. A Michigan law also requires the "teaching of dangerous communicable diseases" in the public schools.

There were 1,000,000 reported cases of gonorrhea in the United States last year, 35,000 in Michigan and 14,000 in Wayne County - 1,654 of which were reported in the out

 Make sure your bicycle fits you. You cannot control a bike that is too big or too small.

The State Board said bicycle safety instruction, offered by nearly all the state's school districts, is especially vital for youngsters.

"You're never too young to learn the 'rules of the road'," said State Supt. of Public Instruction John W. Porter. "Elementary school pupils in particular, who are more vulnerable and less preceptive of dangerous traffic situations, will benefit from bicycle safety in-

S. Petraska Recording Secretary Minutes of the Board of Education SPECIAL MEETING April 25, 1977

A Special Meeting of the Van Buren Board of Education was held in the Board Room of the Administration Building on Monday, April 25, 1977 at 7:30

Members present: Richard Muse, James Sayre, R. Lynne Hamilton, Doris Roe, Robert Cook, and Elwood Bos. Absent: William McCollum. Also present were Superintendent Dale Kaulitz, Director of Personnel Raymond Kohr, Director of Instruction Douglas Brown, and Director of Business Affairs Jack Hosmer.

The purpose of the meeting was to receive Bid Package No. 2 for High School Renovation and conduct other business as necessary.

Louis Walters, Construction Manager for Barton-Malow Construction Management Services; and George Craven, Architect for Jahr Associates, presented bids submitted on Bid Package No. 2 (E.D.A. No 06-51-01386). The package was for building excavation, drain tile, concrete footings and superstructure, and basement wall dampproofing. They recommended rejection of the bid from Brian & Gregory Construction due to an error in the computation of their bid. Motion by Richard Muse, supported by James Sayre, to accept the low bids as follows:

Sunny Seasons Inc. - Excavation & Drain Tile: Freeman-Darling Inc. - Concrete: Wn. H. Kelly Co. - Dampproofing: Total Bid Package No. 2:

$ 20,651.50 569,100.00

Motion carried. (Bid tabulation attached) Louis Walters requested permission to revise Bid Package No. 3 to include:

Intercom System, H.M. Doors and Frames, Finish Hardware, Miscellaneous Iron and Steel Joists, Sash, Masonry, Roofing and Sheet Metal, and Rough Carpentry. The issue date will be May 2, 1977 with sealed bids due at the Van Buren Board of Education offices by 3:00 p.m. May 24, 1977. Motion by James Sayre, supported by Elwood Bos, to grant permission to revise Bid Package No. 3 as presented. Motion carried.

Raymond Kohr presented the following name of teachers being recomtenure status and one teacher recommended for third year probation: Virginia Brennan 6-77, Patricia Bryden 6-76, Mary Hess 6-76, Ina Keyes 1-77, Leigh Maghes 1-77, Narvelus Pearson 6-77, Valerie Peters 6-76, Cheryl Pickett 6-77, Sally Reisman 6-77, Erika Sizemore 6-77, and third year probation for Robert Seefeld. Motion by Elwood Bos, supported by Richard Muse, to accept the recommendations as presented. Motion carried.

He also reported that Mary Winter has appealed her case to the Tenure Commission. No action required at this time.

The planning and list of enumerators to be used in the School Census was presented by Raymond Kohr. The enumerators will be assigned and cover the school district by elementary school attendance areas. The school census must be taken every odd year. Enumerators will receive 10 cents per name. Motion by Doris Roe, supported by Robert Cook, to accept the list of enumerators and planning as presented. Motion carried.

Raymond Kohr presented the response of the V.B.E.A. to a proposal by the Board to have the High School Band and Choir perform at the Commencement exercises in June. Motion by Doris Roe, supported by James Sayre, that the stipend amounting to approximately $50.00 be paid to the Band and Choir Directors for the performances planned at Commencement. Motion carried.

Raymond Kohr reported on the number of applicants for the elementary and high school principalships. Thirteen people from within the school district and eighty-seven people from outside the district have applied for the positions of elementary school principal. Three people within the district and sixty-seven people from outside the district have applied for the position of high school principal. The qualifications and experience of all these people are being surveyed. No action required at this time.

At 8:25 p.m., Raymond Kohr requested an Executive Session to discuss a personnel matter. Meeting was recessed into Executive Session with consent of all Board Members. Special meeting was reconvened at 8:50 p.m. by President Hamilton.

John Ford, High School Principal, presented information involving an incident in the high school involving an attack on Carlos Florido by a high school student. Mr. Ford requested that an offer for a hearing be extended to the student and the parents to consider expulsion of the student from the high school. Superintendent Dale Kaulitz and John Ford were directed to extend the offer of a hearing and proceed with the necessary legal requirements. No further action required at this time.

Jack Hosmer presented the plans drawn up by Morris Levine Associates for proposed replatting of the Henry Morin property now owned by the school district. The property, if replatted, will yelld 18 lots for construction of Building Trades homes. Jack Hosmer requested permission to get approval for the replatting on behalf of the Board from the City of Belleville. Permission was granted.

At President Hamilton's direction, Dale Kaulitz and Jack Hosmer presented a brief recap of the need for additional millage. The Board discussed the level of new millage required in relation to opening the new elementary schools, school operations with 8, 9, or 10 schools, reinstatement of programs, mobile classroom usage or abandonment, elementary school boundary changes, closing one or two schools, and future of schools closed. President Hamilton requested that the Board members keep the items discussed in mind. A special meeting will be called in the near future to make the necessary final decisions. No date for the meeting was set. Meeting adjourned at 10:30 p.m.

17 errors burst Churchill bubble

What a difference one week will make — just ask Livonia Churchill head baseball Coach Rog Frayer.

There Frayer and the Chargers were, riding high on a seven-game winning streak when sudden ly a rained-out game with Plymouth Canton and a cancelled game with Farmington Harrison left them without work.

A week of inactivity can be costly as the Chargers discovered and the next three times they managed to get in conference games they blew them.

Churchill bowed to Harrison 9-5, dropped a 4-1 decision to Walled Lake Western and fell to Northville 7-3. They broke their losing streak with a 6-4 triumph over Highland Park, which didn't help their Western Six Conference image, however.

"It was terrible," moaned Frayer whose Chargers entered the week with a 2-3 conference record. "I hate making excuses, but I feel that layoff cost us a lot.

"We lost our aggressiveness and hitting and we also made 17 errors in those games - that's unbelievable...it really hurt us.

Frayer also feels that a "lot of things must happen before his club can even think of getting back into the league title race. "The frontrunners - Harrison and Canton - are going to have the same kind of week we had, and we're going to have to recover from that shock," Churchill looked like the team that won its first seven games when it ran up against Highland Park last Thursday. The Chargers exploded for five runs in the third inning to give starting pitcher George Medved his second win.

Medved worked the first four innings and pitched hitless ball, walked one and struck out two before Frayer threw in a host of hurlers the rest of the way.

and third, Bill Bardwell hit a grounder to second, who went for the double play, erasing Devlin but scoring Coyle.

Then, Chris Clegg singled, and Ron Nutter followed with a base hit, driving in two more runs. Marty Abraham's base hit produced the fourth run and, after Jeff Lajoie walked, Mark Gallasso singled to left scoring the final Charger run of the

Devlin finished the day with two hits in three appearances while Abraham also drilled two hits in three appearances

Bardwell, Churchill's ace hurler, made his first appearance on the mound after a 11-day rest and was tagged for the 9-5 setback against Harrison.

The Churchill senior lasted three innings and was lifted for Jeff Morris. Harrison took a 2-0 lead in the first inning, increased it to 7-1 in the top of the fourth before the Livonians came back with three runs in the fourth. Clegg singled and doubled and accounted for two RBIs while Dave Colley also drove in two runs for the Livonians with a pair of singles. Western stunned Churchill 4-1 as reliever Dave Schomberger, who took over from Matt Krakowiak in the fourth, was charged with the loss. Churchill averted the shutout in the fourth inning when, with one-away, Coyle singled, stole second and scored when Devlin laced a base hit to left. Northville capitalized upon seven Churchill errors which paced the Colts' way to a 7-3 victory. Morris worked the first two innings before Dave Evanoff took over and finished up.

Coyle's two-run homer over the left field fence highlighted the Chargers' attack.

Frayer and his Chargers have a busy week. They met Waterford Mott on Monday and will take on Plymouth Canton Wednesday before heading for In that third, Bill Coyle got things going when he walked, moved to second on a passed ball and to third when Mike Devlin singled. With men on first wellesday before heading for Walled Lake Western on Friday.1 Harrison had a half-point edge in the standings over Canton as the week began. The league-leader sports a 5-1 record as compared to Canton's 4-1.

Home Buyers Deserve Expert Help...

.. they can count on Detroit & Northern

Because we specialize in home financing, you get the best help available when you talk to one of our home loan specialists. He'll tell you about our many loan plans and options and how to determine how costly a home you can afford. At D&N there is a loan plan right for every budget. Our home loan rates are competitive, but beyond that, the home buyer can expect much more at D&N.

Several Options . . .

We've been lending money to home buyers since 1889, and our experience shows in the service we render our customers. For example, at D&N we have several term options to help meet each borrower's particular needs. The term of the loan, along with the down payment amount and interest rate determine your monthly payment. Depending on the age and condition of the home, a term of up to 30 years may be selected. Ask a D&N home loan specialist to explain how your monthly payment is affected by the term you choose.

For your security, D&N offers mortgage life insurance. This protection provides for the full payment of your loan in the event of death. Disability insurance is available, too', providing for the payment of your monthly loan if the family breadwinner should become disabled.

Loan Payment Convenience . . .

In addition to security, D&N offers some real conveniences, too. To make your monthly payment as easy as possible, we have a plan called "Transma-With this plan, your mortgage payment is automatically deducted from your checking account and transferred to D&N on a set date each month. Using the "Transmatic" plan, you needn't worry about forgetting to make a payment when you are on vacation or out of town. A special trip and writing an additional check each month are eliminated when you choose "Transmatic Handling Details . . .

Many of the details involved in closing the deal will be handled by Detroit & Northern. We will arrange for an appraisal of the property, which will assist in determining the amount of the loan. If a survey is required, D&N will arrange for it. In addition, we can arrange for title insurance. D&N will perform the routine credit checks and handle the recording of your purchase. At the "closing," Detroit & Northern will assemble the various mortgage and legal documents and review them with you.

Continuing Service . . .

After receiving your Detroit & Northern home loan, you will enjoy the continuing services we provide homeowners. D&N will handle the payment of your property taxes, hazard insurance, mortgage life and disability insurance. For your records at the end of each year we will send you an analysis of your escrow account and a statement outlining each financial transaction.

AT DETROIT & NORTHERN YOU ARE CONSID-ERED A FRIEND AND NEIGHBOR. WE VALUE YOUR BUSINESS. BEFORE BUYING A HOME, SEE A DETROIT & NORTHERN HOME LOAN EX-PERT. HE'S A PROFESSIONAL.

11-inning loss costs Wayne

There should be some law against a guy working 11 innings, giving up only three hits and losing 2-1.

That's what happened last week to Wayne High's Don Johnson who lost the nailbiting decision to Taylor

That loss, moreover, dropped Wayne a half-game out of first place and lifted Truman into sole possession of the top of the Great Lakes 8 Conference standings.

"Needless to say, Don pitched superbly," said Wayne Coach Jim Chronowski. "It's just one of those things we had them on the ropes but couldn't come with the knockout punch.'

Johnson, who is the league's strikeout king with 42, picked up 14 against Truman. He didn't give up a hit until the sixth and walked two batters.

Wayne scored its first and only run the fourth when Doug McGill singled with one away, stole second and advanced to third on a fielding error. A wild pitch gave the Zebras' a 1-0

Truman tied it up in the sixth and won in the 11th when, with two-away, Herb Eccleton singled, was removed for pinch-runner, Dave Benart who stole second and scored the decisive run when Dave Kazara singled.

Wayne and senior Pat Bledsoe had no trouble with Fordson who bowed to the Zebras 7-1 behind the senior righthander's four-hitter.

Bledsoe, whose personal pitching record is 4-1 on the year, notched five strikeouts and walked one

Wayne struck for three runs in the first inning and also put three on the board in the sixth. The Zebras exchanged one run with their host in the second frame.

Catcher Tom Banner contributed three of the Wayne 12 hits, collecting a double and two runs batted in on three appearances at the plate. Teammates McGill, Johnson and Canfield each had two hits.

Redford Thurston jolted Wayne, sweeping both ends of a doubleheader 5-2 and 10-7. Canfield (4-1) suffered his first loss of the season and Bill Crews belted a twoouthomer to give Wayne a brief first inning lead.

Larry Vojtkosfsky, who lasted 4 two-thirds inning in the 10-7 night-cap, was charged with the loss. Bledsoe laced a solo homer in the seventh, while McGill and Jim Lentine each had run-scoring triples.

Wayne padded its over-all record to 14-6 at the expense of nonleague rival, Plymouth Salem. Wayne took both ends of a twin bill 3-2 and 3-1. In the opener, Johnson went the distance, struckout seven and walked three for his fourth win in five starts. Bruce Gerish, a 6-5 hurler, was tagged with the loss. He fanned five, also walked that many and hit one batsman.

Wayne broke a two-inning, scoreless knot when McGill latched on to one of Gerish's fast balls for a homer. The Zebras made it 2-0 in that inning as Crews walked, was forced at second by Johnson who then stole second and scored on Canfield's base hit.

A one-out single by Mark Grider, who was doubled to third by McGill, led to Wayne's fourth inning run.

Salem came back in the sixth with back-to-back singles by Pat McKendry and Ben Wilson who scored after Joe Goodsir hit to center and the ball eluded the Wayne centerfielder.

Mark Solarz, called up from the reserves for the Salem series, earned his first varsity win in the second game. He pitched a sixhitter, struck out three and walked Tom Chiatalas was the loser. He gave up five hits and struck out 10. Bob Nutt made his first varsity hit auspicious one as he hammered an over-the-fence homer with Graig Green aboard.

Wayne's defense pulled off two double plays, one with bases loaded in the first inning thanks to shortstop Mike Paz - to-second baseman Doug McGill to Canfield.

Wayne catcher Tom Banner came up with the tag too late to prevent Taylor Truman's Kevin Kilduff from scoring the tying run in the sixth. The two Great Lakes 8 Conference Brett Hansen was considered one of the finest Class A high school hurdlers in the state last year.

This year, the 17-year-old Wayne High senior may be the best.

Hansen was clocked in 40.0 seconds flat for the 330-yard low hurdles and that time is not only the best in the area but also holds down the top time in the state.

Other area standouts as evidenced by the initial top field and track listing include Ted Unold, Westland John Glenn's "blue chip" distance runner who has been clocked in 4:18.8 for the mile and 9:30.4 for the two miles.

Churchill's Dave Kielty, who has tossed the discus 164 feet, is the man to watch in that event with the state finals rounds around next month

The listing was compiled by Coach Rance Teeple who may be reached by after 5 p.m. by telephoning 729-

Inkster still needs gal softball teams

There's still time to register for the Inkster Parks and Recreation's women's softball team.

League competition will be held Mondays and Wednesdays at Oakgrove Park and curtains will go up on June 6.

There is a $175 entry fee and the department is seeking at least two more teams to complete the field. Further information can be obtained by telephoning the offices at 565-4100, ext. 16, 17 or 18.

Inkster also announced that the parks and recreation department will again organize its Summer Day Camp Program for boys and girls six through 12.

The Day Camp is offering six oneweek sessions this year and the first session will begin on June 27. Fees for the sessions are $8 per week.

The Elementary "After School" track program also ended recently and more than 40 boys and girls took part in an outdoor track meet.

There were five events that participants competed in, including softball throw, 60-yard dash, standing broad jump, running long jump and shuttle relay.

Six elementary schools participated; four from the Inkster district and two from the Westwood School District.

A trophy was awarded to the school that accumulated the most

First place went to Frazier School with a total of 30 points; Second place, Woodson with 28 points; third place, Douglas with 26 points; fourth

Belleville '9' keeps title hopes alive

By TOM MOORADIAN Sports Editor

Belleville will need some help to remain in the Suburban 8 Con-ference baseball championship

Coach Dan Fisher's Tigers buried Plymouth Salem 12-2 behind southpaw Bill Hill's four-hit pitching gem to keep their title hopes alive.

Belleville, which has never won a Suburban 8 Conference

Belleville amassed a 12-hit assault on losing Salem hurler Doug Holloway who lasted four innings, gave up eight runs and 11 hits before Bruce Bruckner took over and finished up.

Hill, a senior, notched eight strikeouts and walked four in earning the decision.

The Tigers hammered three homers, two off the bat of Dave Lundell. He accounted for four runs batted in. Teammate Roy Rutherford laced a homer and double and counted two RBI's. Paul Lauth had a pair of doubles and two RBI's, while Dave Pavelka latched on to two hits, both singles.

Belleville exploded for five runs in the first inning and Lance McArthur tossed a three-hitter as the Tigers ripped Trenton 7-1 in their conference meeting.

McArthur worked six innings before Fisher called upon Jeff Smith to clean up. McArthur picked up six whiffs and didn't walk a batter.

In that opening frame, Pavelka started it off with a triple, Don Walls then walked and a single by Lundell drove in the first run of the game. Rutherford also singled, scoring the second run and, after Charlie Childers walked, Ben Collins' base hit chased home two runs and a throwing error led to the final run of the inning

Wayne gals are 7th at Borgess Relays

Breaking at least four school records, Wayne Memorial's girls' track team finished seventh in a field of 35 at the Bishop Borgess-Ladywood Relays held Saturday.

'The girls came up with some of their best performances of the year," said Wayne Coach Doug Tompkins. "They were great."

Wayne won the gold in a medleyfield relay, amassing 2700 points thanks to Lisa Nibert, Debbie Berry and Lori Sheridan. Miss Nibert cleared 5 feet, 7 inches in the high jump, to win the event, while Berry leaped 16 feet, 5 inches in the long jump and Sheridan threw the discus 80 feet and had a put of 34 feet, 8

Earlier, Lipinski handed Taylor Kennedy, the defending Tri-River Conference champ, a 5-0 setback. It was Lipinski's third consecutive shutout and it boosted his personal record to 5-2 on the season. The durable Spartan notched nine strikeouts and walked two. Only one batter reached second and that occurred in the fourth inning, but Lipinski got rid of him by picking him off base.

After three scoreless innings, Cherry Hill tilted the board in its favor in the fourth with two runs, added two more in the fifth and one in the sixth.

In that fourth, Mike Snyder started off by working losing pitcher Ken Waddel for a walk, then Doyle was safe on an error, Jeff Bilek's bunt moved up the baserunners and, after Brian Shuster grounded out, scoring one run, Jack Slade hit to short who booted the ball, allowing the second run to score.

'Blackboard flu' hits Romulus

Willow Run game is first casualty

An unexpected case of the "Blackboard flu" struck Romulus High last week the illness forced the cancellation of the Romulus and Willow Run baseball game.

Teachers in the school district called in sick or asked for personal days, forcing the school administration to shut down schools.

Dennis Stoh, the head baseball coach at the high school, reported to school on time but was forced to cancel the scheduled game Friday with Willow Run.

"It's a sticky situation," Stoh said, "either way people are going to be unhappy and I want the kids to know that, after all they have gone through, I was going to be there to try to get the game in.

Romulus baseball and track team members had to raise money by themselves in order to compete this season. After two millage proposals failed to get voter approval, the school board decided to cut

"Our kids worked hard to raise the money and I wouldn't want to see them be punnished for it," Stoh said. The punnishment, Stoh explained, would be in the form of not completing the season. He also said he didn't know how long the "blackboard flu' would last Apparently the "flue" had spread to Romulus from neighboring Taylor and Dearborn Heights. Teachers in Taylor used the tactics to get a contract from the administration.

Romulus teachers and the board are in the midst of negotiations and the recent millage failures have slowed down talks between the teachers' union and the board. Before the flu hit Romulus, however, the Eagles managed to bury Ann Arbor Huron 15-1, shut out Milan 7-0 and lose to Ann Arbor Pioneer 9-1. Don McMann belted two homers, one a grand slam in the third inning, to help Romulus rout Huron and give pitcher Mike Marsiglia his second win of the campaign.

Marsiglia notched five strikeouts and walked one in a two-hit pitching effort. The two hits were singles.

Kelly Summerfield accounted for two of the Eagles' 15 hits and also drove in two runs while Mike Williams bagged a double and single. Bill Suggs counted three RBI's thanks to a triple and single.

Suggs, a transfer student from Texas, twirled a three-hitter as Romulus staked him to a 5-run first inning against Milan. The lanky senior posted his third win of the season as he carded 13 whiffs, walked two and didn't leave a Milan baserunner past second.

Sophomore Russ Ayres started the fireworks for Romulus as he singled in the first inning, moved to second on Eric Moore's base hit and scored when McMann also singled. A sacrifice fly by Williams scored the next run and Jeff Fraze was awarded first after being struck by a wild pitch.

Suggs' infield grounder scored two more runs.

Summers has 6 more records

Adrian College sophomore Barry Summers has again set new records in track and field. The 86th. M.I.A.A. League Field Day, held at Alma College, was the setting for Summers to erase two all-time league records.

Summers won the shot put with a heave of 52'61/2" to eclipse the old mark of 51734" 1969 by Calvin Colleges' Vlaardingerbroek.

In the discus competition, Summers won with a record breaking throw of 160'11", which bested the previous mark of 159'10". The old record was set by Alma Colleges' Jim Lothrup meet.

The two first place wins and record setting marks have nearly capped a very successful and record breaking year of track and filed for Summers, who is a 1975 graduate of Westland, John Glenn thanks to mile relay team Pointing out that it was an excellent tune-up for his team's pending showdown with Westland John Glenn, Livonia Franklin rallied to a narrow 80-78 nonleague track victory over Bishop Borgess last Thursday. The victory was the Livonians' sixth in seven starts. They're undefeated (3-0) in the Northwest Suburban Conference and will meet John Glenn, also 3-0 and the defending champ, to decide which team will enter Wednesday's conchampionships with a perfect league record.

Franklin was host for the Glenn meet (May 18) and will host the conference championships on May

"Since we score and count dual meets in the conference, the winner of our meet with John Glenn could do no worse than to finish second in the over-all league standings," said Bob Holmes, Franklin coach.

"And the winner definitely will be considered as the favored to take the conference championship," Holmes

Holmes and the Patriots can thank their mile relay team for the victory over a highly-touted Bishop Borgess contingent. The foursome of Phil Frusti, Bob Urben, Nate Kean and Tim Rose sealed it when they finished ahead of their Borgess' counterparts.

Franklin was clocked in 3:32.1, while Borgess finished in 3:33.1 in that decisive relay.

Borgess had the places, though, taking 10 out of a possible 16 of them.

rally enabled Schafer to eke out a 5-4 victory over the Spartans in their first meeting of the season. Scott Dawson pitched an eight-hitter, struck out four and walked eight to take the loss.

An error led to Cherry Hill's demise in the seventh and also opened the door to Schafer's win.

The Spartans took a 4-2 lead in the top of the seventh as Slade singled with one away, Dawson was safe on a fielder's choice than erased Slade. A passed ball moved Dawson to second and Buck singled him home with the go-ahead run.

children is required by both the new federal Aid to the Handicapped Act and Michigan's Mandatory Special Education Act. Michigan law requires that handicapped children from birth to age 26 provided educational services. As part of the current search, parents of handicapped children already in school are offering to consult with parents who believe their children may be in need of special education. They feel their experiences can benefit those who are dismayed or bewildered by the problems of their children.

To call attention to the need for finding all handicapped children, the parents are distributing leaflets and posters urging parents or other interested persons to seek advice. Anyone having knowledge of a child who may need help is asked to call the Intermediate School District at 381-4188. Their calls will be directed to the proper local school district for professional assistance.

The Wayne County Intermediate School District has the responsibility of seeing that all handicapped children receive needed educational services in either a local school district, or in a countywide program.

Tomeis invest in Westland From a diner in 1958 to racquet ball in '77

By BOB AMEEN ANP Staff Writer

Back in 1958, two brothers from Italy invested $18,000 in a small diner in Westland. Today, their several businesses in the city range from an ice cream parlor to a huge racquet club.

Dario Tomei was only 9 years old when he and his brother, Angelo, then 14, came to the United States with their mother to join their father who had been here since 1920.

"After we got here, we both went to school in Detroit," Dario recalled. Angelo began working for Great Lakes Steel once his school days were over, and Dario performed odd jobs after classes were over for the day.

Then, in 1958, an opportunity arose to purchase a 30-seat diner in Westland at 33550 Ford Road. Today, after four expansions, with the new name of Angelo Brothers Restaurant, 130 persons can be seated.

The menu has been expanded too, featuring Italian and American food, pizzas and cocktails, a far cry from the simple fare found in the original diner.

From this early business venture, the two brothers now own All-Star Sports Shop at 33500 Ford Road, Dario Frost 'n' Sub, at 30369 Cherry Hill Road, and the recently-opened Coliseum Racquet Club at 34250 Ford Road.

Dario, a short, thin man with dark curly hair, spoke with pride of he and his brother's establishments.

"We have about 9,000 square feet of space at the sports shop. We sell just about every type of sport equipment you can imagine, from golf to baseball, basketball, hockey and football. You name it, we have it," he said.

He added that one side of the Frost 'n' Sub is devoted to selling ice cream in a variety of flavors, while the other side specializes in pizza sold whole or by the slice and several different kinds of submarine sandwiches. It seats 80 patrons.

It soon became evident that the pride and joy of both men was their new racquet club, which was completed late last year. With its 30,000 square feet of space, two-tone brick enterior and plush interior carpeting, the Coliseum marks the brothers!

entry into giving Westland sports fans the best facilities that money can buy.

Angelo, short like his brother, but heavier and with dark wavy hair, said racquet ball has become so popular that 5,000 to 6,000 customers pass through their doors every week.

As explained by Angelo and Dario, the game is played on an indoor court, slightly smaller than a tennis court, by two to four players. The racquet is smaller than a tennis racquet, but is similarly strung. The ball also is smaller than that used in tennis, but with no fuss on the outside.

"It's an exciting game," Dario said. "I first played it about two years ago, saw how well my friends liked it, and I realized the potential market for a first-class racquet club."

The Coliseum boasts 16 indoor racquet ball courts, all open to the public on a 24-hour basis.

Dario said up to four persons can play on a single court as a cost of $6 per hour between 11 p.m. and 4 p.m. the next day and $8 per hour between 4 and 11 p.m. the same day, Monday through Friday. On Saturday and Sunday, the charge is $8 per hour from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m., with the fee decreasing to $6 per hour after that time.

While the main specialty of the Coliseum is racquet ball, it also offers customers a four chair barber shop, a sauna, several lounge areas and shower and locker room facilities.

The first week in May witnessed the opening of a restaurant and lounge at the Coliseum, complete with hot sandwiches and liquor, according to Angelo.

Questioned on future plans, it soon became evident that the brothers had only exposed the tip of the iceberg. Their eyes glowed as they told of what more they have in store for Westland.

"We are breaking ground next month for a super 40,000-square foot racquet club to be called the Forum. It will have just about everything you could ask for," Angelo said.

The luxurious new structure will be built just north of the Coliseum, but will differ from its predecessor by limiting play to 2,000 persons on a membership-only-basis. The Forum will contain a swimming pool, whirlpool, steam rooms, barber shop, television lounge, beauty salon, exercise room, conference room, restaurant and lounge, 16 indoor racquet ball courts and a glass-walled tournament court.

Dario said proudly: "With 32 indoor courts between the Coliseum and the Forum, we will be the biggest in the world! We're also the only racquet ball clubs in Michigan in which liquor is served."

He said the exercise room at the Forum will include weightlifting apparatus and other equipment for use by physical fitness buffs and those players interested in slimming down their figures.

That isn't all! The two brothers will construct a four to five story office building containing 50,000 square feet of space between the Coliseum and the new Forum. Plans call for a shopping complex of personalized shops, including a barber shop and beauty salon.

As if overseeing and managing several businesses was not enough, the Dario and Angelo also contract the erection of all of their buildings.

Asked if he and his brother has anything else in the works, Dario commented: "That's enough for now."

"It may cost more, but we get it done the way we want it," Dario said.

The brothers are proud fathers. Dario has two sons, Dino, 14, and Chris, 8. The oldest boy plays hockey with the Michigan Stars in open league competition, while his younger brother skates for the Westland "Mites" in independent league play.

Angelo has four children — Nickey, 14, Perry, 11, Cathy, 9 and Angelo Jr., 6. Nickey is active in racquet ball, and Perry participates in hockey and lacrosse.

ANTONIA TOMEI AND SONS, ANGELO AND DARIO

Love of country, love of community and love of family typifies the philosophy of brothers Angelo and Dario Tomei, owners and operators of the Coliseum Racquet Club, 34250 Ford Rd. in Westland.

As businessmen with several holdings in Westland, they believe in sharing. Proof is in the sponsorship of some 10 Little League hockey and basebal teams over the last 10 years, as well as annual donations to Cub Scouts and other children organizations.

Carrying on in the family tradition, Angelo and Dario are married and the fathers of four and two children, respectively. Angelo and his wife, Delia (Lilla), who he married in Italy, are parents of Nicholas, 14, Perry, 11, Cathy, 9, and Angelo Jr., 6. Dario and his wife, Dorothy, who was a resident of Dearborn, have two children, Dino, 14, and Christopher, 8.

The elder Tomei had originally arrived in this country in 1924 to find employment, hoping to save enough money to eventually bring his family here. He made many trips back to his native Italy to visit his wife and family, but the happy day when they could all be together did not come until 24 years after he first set foot on American soil.

Cataldo worked in the coal mines of Pennyslvania for several years before moving to Detroit to go to work at Ford Rouge Plant. He was employed there until his retirement in 1959. He died in 1975 at the age of 73. His faith in his adopted land and his perserverance in reaching his goal of uniting his family here is representative of those from foreign shores who contributed to the success of 20th century America.

Antonia is justly proud of what her two sons have accomplished in the business world of Westland. She is equally proud of a daughter, Mrs. Elba Santia, who lives in California, and her oldest son, Rocco, a successful photographer in Frosinone, Italy.

The Angelo Tomei family resides in Garden City, while Dario and his family live in Westland. Their pride in their community area is evidenced by a new super racquet club, The Forum, and a four to five-story office building, which they have slated for construction near the Coliseum in the near future
